

1993 Approach Index

Title	Month Page
ACM
Nose Low, Accelerating? —Tomcat crew's departure story.	JAN 32
Watch This! —an unintended departure	APR-MAY 28
Watch the Deck! Roll Left! —instructor makes some errors that lead to an ejection	OCT 8
If I Had Only Known —good-deal ACM hop goes bad with a coupled departure	NOV 8
Dying Ain't Much of a Living —F-14s have a midair during ACM	DEC 18
Left to Left —two A-4s nearly have a midair	DEC 14

Aeromedical

Fatigue, Circadian Rhythms and Crew Rest	MAR 12
The Pointy End —once more, don't fly with a cold	MAR IBC
VMC Vertigo —viral ear infection catches this Hornet pilot	APR-MAY 20
And I Thought the EP Trainer Was Tough —on a XC, the pilot has hypoxia	APR-MAY 30
Is This Thing On? —the pilot has vertigo, but the student RIO doesn't know it	JUL 6
Don't Fear the HFB —a 3-part look at the Human Factors Board	AUG 6
Two Belows Ain't So Bad —student does not eat the entire day, and finally goes flying	AUG 25
Endurance Test —this Tomcat pilot has a bad cold, but he still goes flying	SEP 12
The Hypoxic Avengers &amp; "Mr. Vegas" Play the Odds —Prowler crew has problems with an oxygen leak	OCT 2
Self Medication —2 stories on what the flight surgeon does and OTC drugs	OCT 14

Aircraft Type

A-4

BZ (VMA-131)	JUL 26
BZ (VMA-124)	AUG 27
BZ (VMA-131)	OCT 27
Repeat Gripes That Bite —during a CQ, this pilot gets an unsafe gear light and heads for Key West	MAR 7
Ever Bet Your Life on a RAT? —on his first TA-4 XC, this student and his IP have problems	MAR 20
He Won't Be Coming Back —this pilot's death affects everyone	AUG 16
I Might Actually Lose This One! —an XC becomes more exciting	OCT 22
How Did I End Up Here? —this pilot has to land at a small field	DEC 4
Left to Left —two A-4s nearly have a midair	DEC 14

A-6

BZ (VA-95)	APR-MAY 26
BZ (VA-155)	JUL 29
BZ (VA-165)	NOV 25
I'm Famous —a training flight later proves embarrassing during an FAA rep's lecture	JAN 17
My El Centro Excursion —this crew ejects after a bomb drop	JAN 18
The Night the Lights Went Out in the Radios —BN uses his PRC-90 to call the ship	MAR 22
Fire in the Pits! —fatal ground mishap	JUN 10
Good Fortune on a Bad Day —good-deal flight goes bad with an emergency divert	JUN 12
No Boredom at Boardman —after a weapons delivery, this crew sees warning lights	JUN 15

Month Page

Inside, When We Should Have Been Outside! —was losing a generator a big problem?	JUN 28
Landing-Mode Lullaby —crew almost makes a gear-up, flaps-up landing	JUL 5
Blind Luck —the flyoff's one of carrier aviations most insidiously dangerous periods, as this A-6 pilot learned	JUL 10
515, You're on Fire, Eject, Eject! —even with the Boss' call this A-6 crew stays with the plane	JUL 16
Are You Really Cleared to Land? —there was another A-6 on the runway	JUL 18
Speaking With Your Seat —you may not have enough time to warn your buddy	JUL 30
A Little Doodle May Save You —tanker NMAC with Hornet	AUG 32
Intruder Hydraulics for Aircrew —the plane's getting old and crews need to know a few things about its innards	SEP 6
Inverted Gear Up (or was that Down?) Pass —the crew dislodges a main gear in an unusual way	OCT 18
Then, I Smelled Fuel —flight-deck episode results in flash fire	NOV 2
Watch That Tanker! No, Watch the Prowler, Now, Look Out for the Hornet! —NMAC	NOV 26
How to Boil a Frog —this crew didn't realize they were in trouble until it was nearly too late	DEC 20
A-7
How to Step on Your LSO —after several tries this pilot has to divert	SEP 14
AH-1
BZ (HMLA-369)	SEP 26
Communication Breakdown —2-parter on Cobra cockpit communication	AUG 18
Pullin' My Chain —this pilot had to decide whether he should fly	DEC
AV-8B
BZ (VMA-513)	JUN 26
C-9
Look Out, Look Out! —a NMAC with two C-130s	AUG 10
EA-6A
BZ (VAQ-33)	JUN 26
EA-6B
BZ (VAQ-131)	AUG 26
BZ (VAQ-138)	SEP 24
Red! What a Horrible Color —engine problems force this Prowler crew to head for the beach	JAN 12
Mr. Fixit, Where Are You? —no flight instruments make for a few trying moments	JAN 16
Small FOD, Big Problem —a fastener jams a Prowler's controls	JAN 21
Push! Push! Descend! Descend! —Prowler and Hornet night NMAC	JAN 30
How Much Gas Do We Have? —misinterpreting the fuel gauge causes problems during an XC	JUN 9
Prowling Through the Fog —wandering along the taxiway, this Prowler nearly meets a C-9	AUG 20
Call the Ball? What Ball! —Prowler crew approaches a small boy instead of their carrier	SEP 22
Did He Say Barricade? —Prowler's CQ nearly turns into a disaster	SEP 28

The Hypoxic Avengers & "Mr. Vegas" Play the Odds—

Prowler crew has problems with an oxygen leak OCT 2

Yes, NFOs Have a Seat of the Pants!—the signs told him to eject, but still he waited OCT 28OK, OK, I Messed Up!—night cat shot, and an ECMO throws the wrong switch NOV 5The Ice Fog Cometh—Prowler crew has ice in the engine NOV 14E-2*BZ (VAW-117) SEP 25Rendezvous by Braille—Hummer has a near midair with an S-3 JAN 28No-Grade Copilot—crew coordination in the cockpit is essential APR-MAY 6The Case of the Mystery Spark—this JO was not sure he should speak up JUN 22Runway Roulette—accepting the wrong runway gives this pilot more trouble JUL 18I Can't Be Stalled!—this Hummer's rotodome ices up SEP 10Slip Sliding Away—aircraft slides along the flight deck SEP 16E-6A*BZ (VQ-4) JUL 27F-14*BZ (VF-14) MAR 26BZ (VF-14) JUN 27BZ (VF-84) OCT 26BZ (VF-74) NOV 24Paddles, No AOA!—this Tomcat crew has an emergency but doesn't know it JAN 24Nose Low, Accelerating?—Tomcat crew's departure story JAN 32Watch This!—an unintended departure APR-MAY 28I Love Spin Training!—showing off for another crew puts this Tomcat crew in jeopardy JUN 5The Line Between Hero and Bum—turbine failure and fire nearly costs the Navy a Tomcat JUN 7It Just Blew—Tomcat blows a tire on launch JUN 20Back in the Saddle?—knowing which CB to pull would have saved this crew precious fuel JUN 24I'll See Your Commander, and Raise You Two*Lieutenants—the crew is still responsible for their aircraft JUN 32Is This Thing On?—the pilot has vertigo, but the student RIO doesn't know it JUL 6Blown Tires, Smoking Hubs—another plane on the runway forces this pilot to blow his tires JUL 20There's a Civilian on My Tomcat! Get Him Off!—make sure your plane captain knows procedures JUL 30One Down, One to Go—this Tomcat pilot has engine problems and heads for the ship AUG 8Two Down and One Gone—Tomcat slides off the runway and digs into the grass AUG 22How Could We Have Missed That?—Tomcat crew missed a big gash on a slat SEP 21Watch the Deck! Roll Left!—instructor makes some errors that lead to an ejection OCT 8Pros of the Week? No Way!—flight-side hydraulic failure OCT 12My Night Swim Off Miremar—fire light and an ejection OCT 16Why Is My Finger on the Totalizer?—off the cat, this crew loses the CADC OCT 20If I Had Only Known—good-deal ACM hop goes bad with a coupled departure NOV 8Good Wings, Nice and Crunchy!—deck taxi mishap NOV 28Dying Ain't Much of a Living—F-14s have a midair during ACM DEC 18Japanese Ping-Pong—plan on the unexpected, especially when the new airfield has only one runway DEC 10You Make the Call—what do you tell your wingman? DEC 28F/A-18*BZ (VFA-106) No. 1 JAN 27BZ (VFA-106) No. 2 JAN 27BZ (VFA-305) APR-MAY 27BZ (VMFA-112) JUL 27BZ (VMFA-212) SEP 24BZ (VFA-22) SEP 25BZ (VMFA[AW]-225) SEP 26BZ (VFA-125) NOV 25BZ (VFA-192) DEC 24BZ (VFA-125) DEC 25The Decision Was Made for Me—ejection off the cat MAR 8The EMCON Game—Hornet pilot has problems in the Gulf JUN 8Hornet Single-Engine—knowledge of aircraft characteristics is vital SEP 8Blown Tire Off the Cat—Hornet pilot copes with a damaged nose gear OCT 30GIGO—emergency off the cat OCT 32The Air Show Wasn't Supposed to End Like This!—a twisted main gear gives this pilot more than he figured NOV 16Off the Cat—a discussion of Hornet launch characteristics DEC 6H-1*Huey Versus the Volcano—VXE-6 crew copes with antarctic winds FEB 26The Crew Chief Didn't Listen—he didn't use the gunner's belt FEB 28The Bird's Eating the Dynamite!—an antarctic mission provides some unusual flight maneuvers DEC 13H-2*BZ (HSL-32) JAN 27BZ (HSL-34) AUG 27BZ (HSL-37) DEC 25Mind Readers Requested—new HAC has problems on a cross-country FEB 2The Home Stretch—20 minutes may not be enough of a cushion if things don't go as planned FEB 16The Negative Learning Curve—night dopplers on smokes FEB 18Ten Feet and Climbing—a night training flight almost ends in the water APR-MAY 242 Individuals, Not a Crew of Two—experience is no insurance against stupidity JUN 30Another Boring Day in the Gulf—anything but as an H-2 crew rescues merchant seamen after an Iranian attack JUL 2H-3*BZ (HS-14) MAR 27A Dipper Takes a Dip—crew ditches, then takes off again FEB 10First Item of Business: Check CG Trim—they didn't and nearly had a mishap FEB 14No Worries—a USN exchange pilot with a Royal Navy Sea King squadron FEB 30H-46*BZ (HC-6) JUL 26BZ (HMM-164) JUL 28BZ (HMM-266) OCT 27BZ (HMM-365) NOV 24

For Lack of a Brief and a Gunner's Belt—H-46 crew has in-flight emergency
110-Knot Side Flare—the helo nearly swaps ends on this crew

JUN 2
 DEC 2

H-53

BZ (HMM-161)

A Hog Meets its Shadow (Almost)—the HAC has problems with his crew, and eventually, the flight
Problems on the carrier flight deck—letter
Larry, Moe and Curly Go to the Air Show—how much more warning did these aviators need
Whose Idea Was This, Anyway?—problems with getting to the ship in a storm

MAR 26
 AUG 2
 AUG 30
 OCT 24
 NOV 10

H-60

BZ (HSL-42)

APR-MAY 27

Musical TACANs—this crew confuses the signal from a carrier for their cruiser's TACAN
One-Time Flight—when is it OK, if ever?
Angel in the Storm—one crew's SAR story in the Gulf
All Helicopters Hold—an H-60 crew encounters an Egyptian MiG on the same runway
Cloudy Crew Coordination—An H-60 pilot doesn't tell his copilot he has vertigo
Our Chinese Fire Drill—a trip to the beach turns into a CQ on a carrier
There's No Place for Ego in the Black Hole—a JO tries to impress his OINC
The Seahawk—a "Raven-esque" poem
Single-Pallet Fleilox—VERTREP for a LAMPS III causes problems
There I Wasn't!—the frigate's gun crew fires a shell that nearly causes major damage for this recently recovered Seahawk crew
A Few Pounds for the Wife and Kids—don't break the rules for a traing mission

FEB 5
 FEB 20
 FEB 24
 MAR 19
 JUN 14
 AUG 12
 SEP 27
 OCT 8
 OCT 11
 DEC 12
 Dec 26

P-3

But, Skipper, We Brought Your Plane Back!—smoke in the aircraft threatens the mission for this crew
"Roger That Emergency; You're No. 4..."—prop problems bring this crew back early to begin trials with ATC
Flying Like a Rock—an unbriefed, unfamiliar approach causes problems
Too Many Questions—a midair between two P-3s, what happened
Be Alert! We Need More 'lerts!—four sets of eyes miss the warning light in the cockpit
Things That Go Bump on the Runway—this plane lands on the arresting gear and peels a tire
Inaction Speaks Louder Than Words—this crew finally says no to their fourth airplane
Boomers and a Bad Radar—radar was more of a detriment than a help

JAN 7
 JAN 22
 MAR 10
 MAR 16
 APR-MAY 10
 JUL 32
 NOV 12
 NOV 22

S-3

Two 360s Don't Make a Right—S-3 crew has trouble spotting helo traffic
Disaster Over the Bay—S-3 crew ejects with major injuries
And I Thought the EP Trainer Was Tough—on a XC, the pilot has hypoxia
Zorching Along with Smurfs—this crew nearly hits the ground
Flight-Deck BBQ—S-3's exhaust fire nearly has tragic results

JAN 14
 MAR 2
 APR-MAY 30
 SEP 4
 SEP 5

T-2

The Most Instructive Flight—student learns the value of allowing time to prepare
Last Flight—this pilot's last hop turns out to be a disaster

Month Page
 APR-MAY 4
 OCT 4

T-34

BZ (VT-27)
BZ (VT-3)
BZ (VT-28)

APR-MAY 26
 JUN 26
 DEC 24

T-44

BZ (VT-31)

AUG 27

Air Show: The Crowd Can't Tell the Difference, but Your CAG Can!—if maturity and skill are the criteria for being a demo pilot, why do we still have mishaps at air shows?

APR-MAY 8

Air Traffic Control—(see January's special section on controllers)

Whose Fault Is It Anyway?—Editorial on pilot-controller relationship

JAN IFC

Break, Now!—E-2 crew has a near midair at the break

JAN 2

Who's Trying to Kill Whom?—a senior Navy controller gives his views on pilot and AC responsibilities

JAN 3

Traffic in the Groove—a civilian airliner and a C-9 make life interesting for a young tower controller

JAN 5

Two 360s Don't Make a Right—S-3 crew has trouble spotting helo traffic

JAN 14

Roger That Emergency; You're No. 4...—prop problems bring this crew back early to begin trials with ATC

JAN 22

Zero Feet Vertical Separation—P-3/H-3 NMAC

APR-MAY 2

Pull the Tapes!—a controller has to explain her actions

JUN 16

Wasn't Anyone Listening?—A NMAC between a Hornet and a civilian airliner

JUN 18

Are You Really Cleared to Land?—there was another A-6 on the runway

JUL 18

Go Down! Go Down!—Prowler has a NMAC with F-15s in the Gulf

AUG 24

You Tried to Kill Me!—CATTC officer's story

SEP 2

The ABCs of Flying—new airspace classifications

SEP 30

Carrier Operations (see September CV/LSO issue)

The EMCON Game—Hornet pilot has problems in the Gulf

JUN 8

It Just Blow—Tomcat blows a tire on launch

JUN 20

Blind Luck—the flyoff is one of carrier aviation's most insidiously dangerous periods, as this A-6 pilot learned

JUL 10

One Down, One to Go—this Tomcat pilot has engine problems and heads for the ship

AUG 8

Do I Believe the Yellowshirt?—a yellowshirt and plane captain confuse this crew

AUG 14

You Tried to Kill Me!—CATTC officer's story

SEP 2

Flight-Deck BBQ—S-3's exhaust fire nearly has tragic results

SEP 5

Hornet Single-Engine—knowledge of aircraft characteristics is vital

SEP 8

How to Step on Your LSO—after several tries this A-7 pilot has to divert

SEP 14

Slip Sliding Away—an E-2 slides along the flight deck

SEP 16

How Many Helos Does It Take to Fill a Very

Small Space?—confusion reigns as helos move between several ships

SEP 18

Blow the Man Down—Prowler's exhaust blows a deck crewman off the deck

SEP 20

How Could We Have Missed That?—Tomcat crew missed a big gash on a slat

SEP 21

Call the Ball? What Ball!—Prowler crew approaches a smallboy instead of their carrier

SEP 22

Did He Say Barricade? —Prowler's CQ nearly turns into a disaster	SEP 28
Pros of the Week? No Way! —flight-side hydraulic failure	OCT 12
Blown Tire Off the Cat —Hornet pilot copes with a damaged nose gear	OCT 30
Then, I Smelled Fuel —flight-deck episode results in flash fire	NOV 2
OK, OK, I Messed Up! —night cat shot, and an ECMO throws the wrong switch	NOV 5
The Chief's Hurt! —An A-6 rolls over a deck crewman	NOV 6
Good Wings, Nice and Crunchy! —deck taxi mishap	NOV 28
Crew Coordination
But, Skipper, We Brought Your Plane Back! —smoke in the aircraft threatens the mission for this crew	JAN 7
Who Pulls First? —considerations for multi-seat jet crews	JAN 8
When Do I Eject? —a senior BN's view	JAN 10
Two 360s Don't Make a Right —S-3 crew has trouble spotting helo traffic	JAN 14
I Thought You Had the Controls! —confusion in this H-2's cockpit	JAN 20
Nose Low, Accelerating? —Tomcat crew's departure story	JAN 32
Mind Readers Requested —new H-2 HAC has problems on a cross-country	FEB 2
First Item of Business: Check CG Trim —this H-3 crew didn't and nearly had a mishap	FEB 14
No-Grade Copilot —crew coordination in the cockpit is essential	APR-MAY 6
Be Alert! We Need More 'lerts! —four sets of eyes miss the warning light in the P-3 cockpit	APR-MAY 10
For Lack of a Brief and a Gunner's Belt —H-46 crew has in-flight emergency	JUN 2
Cloudy Crew Coordination —An H-60 pilot doesn't tell his copilot he has vertigo	JUN 14
2 Individuals, Not a Crew of Two —experience is no insurance against stupidity	JUN 30
Is This Thing On? —the pilot has vertigo, but the student RIO doesn't know it	JUL 6
Too Close for Comfort —student is afraid to question his instructor even though they're headed for a midair	JUL 8
A Hog Meets Its Shadow (Almost) —the HAC has problems with his crew, and eventually, the flight	AUG 2
Communication Breakdown —2-part on Cobra cockpit communication	AUG 18
Ejection and Survival
Who Pulls First? —considerations for multi-seat jet crews	JAN 8
When Do I Eject? —a senior BN's view	JAN 10
My El Centro Excursion —this crew ejects after a bomb drop	JAN 18
The Crew Chief Didn't Listen —he didn't use the gunner's belt	FEB 28
Disaster Over the Bay —S-3 crew ejects with major injuries	MAR 2
Flying Fashions —what the well- and safely-dress aviator should wear	MAR 5
The Decision Was Made for Me —ejection off the cat	MAR 8
Survival from an Exchange Viewpoint —a Royal Navy officer's comments on how the British do things	MAR 14
That's Why It's Called Survival Gear! —a few times when the right gear would have helped	MAR 28
Fire in the Pits! —fatal ground mishap	JUN 10
A Summer's Day at the Local Pool —a jammed belt makes for an interesting ride in the helo dunker	JUN 29
515, You're on Fire, Eject, Eject! —even with the Boss' call this A-6 crew stays with the plane	JUL 16
Speaking With Your Seat —you may not have enough time to warn your buddy	JUL 30
Advice from a Hinge —wear your SV-2 on the flight deck during preflight	JUL IBC

Last Flight —this pilot's last hop turns out to be a disaster	OCT 4
Watch the Deck! Roll Left! —instructor makes some errors that lead to an ejection	OCT 8
My Night Swim Off Miramar —fire light and an ejection	OCT 16
Yes, NFOs Have a Seat of the Pants! —the signs told him to eject, but still he waited	OCT 28

Flight Planning

Beyond the "X" —during an XC, this pilot learns the value of reading NOTAMS	JAN 6
The Home Stretch —20 minutes may not be enough of a cushion if things don't go as planned as this H-2 pilot	FEB 16
The Bingo Equation —the decision can cause more problems for the crew	MAR 30
The Most Instructive Flight —student learns the value of allowing time to prepare	APR-MAY 4
Larry, Moe and Curly Go to the Air Show —how much more warning did these aviators need	OCT 24
Letter to "The Bingo Equation" story , with a CAG's reply	NOV 30
A Milk Run Gone Sour —a little more planning might have saved this A-6 crew some agony	NOV 32

FOD

Small FOD, Big Problem —a fastener jams a Prowler's controls	JAN 21
---	--------

Ground Operations

Plane Captain in the Water? —the PC didn't look where he was going	AUG 5
Prowling Through the Fog —wandering along the taxiway, this Prowler nearly meets a C-9	AUG 20

Helicopter—(see February theme issue)

I Thought You Had the Controls! —confusion in this H-2's cockpit	JAN 20
Mind Readers Requested —new H-2 HAC has problems on a cross-country	FEB 2
A Dipper Takes a Dip —H-3 crew ditches, then takes off again	FEB 10
How Did the Old-Timers Do It? —getting back to basics with the ADF	FEB 12
First Item of Business: Check CG Trim —they didn't and nearly had a mishap	FEB 14
The Negative Learning Curve —night dopplers on smokes	FEB 18
Single Engine... No Sweat? —a few points to consider	FEB 23
For Lack of a Brief and a Gunner's Belt —H-46 crew has in-flight emergency	JUN 2
Another Boring Day in the Gulf —anything but as an H-2 crew rescue merchant seamen after an Iranian attack	JUL 2
How Many Helos Does It Take to Fill a Very Small Space? —confusion reigns as helos move between several ships	SEP 18
Those Fuzzy Foreigners —flying to a British then French carrier presents some problems for this H-3 crew	OCT 6
Pullin' My Chain —this pilot had to decide whether he should fly	DEC 23

Humor

Special insert: "Another Approach" —several one-pagers and "Brownshoes in Action" (One Day at an AOM)	APR-MAY
Brownshoes in Action —Dangerboy falls under a guru's influence	SEP IBC

Midair/Near Midair

	Month	Page
NMAC/Rendezvous by Braille —E-2 has a NMAC with an S-3	JAN	28
Push! Push! Descend! Descend! —Prowler and Hornet night NMAC	JAN	30
Get-Home-Itis-At Home! —Cobra pilot pushes on a training flight	FEB	6
You Can't Fly Without Fuel —Seahawk crew relearns this axiom	FEB	7
Skydiving Into a Blender, or Not Everyone Reads NOTAMs —this H-46 crew has two NMACs	FEB	29
Too Many Questions —a midair between two P-3s, what happened	MAR	16
All Helicopters Hold —an H-60 crew encounters an Egyptian MiG on the same runway	MAR	19
Zero Feet Vertical Separation —P-3/H-3 NMAC	APR-MAY	2
Wasn't Anyone Listening? —A NMAC between a Hornet and a civilian airliner	JUN	18
Too Close for Comfort —student is afraid to question his instructor even though they're headed for a midair	JUL	8
Are You Really Cleared to Land? —there was another A-6 on the runway	JUL	18
Look Out, Look Out! —a NMAC between a C-9 and two C-130s	AUG	10
Go Down! Go Down! —Prowler has a NMAC with F-15s in the Gulf	AUG	24
A Little Deedle May Save You —tanker NMAC with Hornet	AUG	32
Watch That Tanker! No, Watch the Prowler, Now, Look Out for the Hornet! —NMAC	NOV	26
Dying Ain't Much of a Living —F-14s have a midair during ACM	DEC	18

Miscellaneous

Crowded Skies, UAVs and You —unmanned air vehicles are coming, and they fly in the same air space as you do	DEC	16
--	-----	----

Mishap Investigation

The Hazards of the System —some hazards we hear about but don't act on	MAR	24
A Mishap Investigator's Guide to Survival —How to be ready to best use your resources and people	JUL	12
A Quarter of the Mishaps for a Tenth of the Flight Time? —editorial on statistics for carrier aviation	SEP	IFC
Do You Deserve to Be in the Cockpit? —weak performers should be watched	DEC	8

NATOPS and Safety

	Month	Page
Safety Article? What's There to Write About? —just look around the squadron for ideas	JAN	IBC
Honey, Did You Bring My NATOPS? —life's little pressures can make you detour from adequate preparation	FEB	8
One-Time Flight —when is it OK, if ever?	FEB	20
Me King Kong —a CAG looks back on his career	JUL	23
The End of Hopes and Dreams —guest editorial: a Hornet pilot's widow has to cope with his death	AUG	IFC
Plane Captain in the Water? —the PC didn't look where he was going	AUG	5
He Won't Be Coming Back —this pilot's death affects everyone	AUG	16
Inaction Speaks Louder Than Words —this crew finally says no to their fourth airplane	NOV	12
Too Close to the Scenery —this story on general aviation has implications for military crews, too	NOV	20
Skippers Never Die —no one looks out for the CO	DEC	22

Preflight

Preflight —maybe you should check your plane's preflight checklist	JUN	23
Advice from a Hinge —wear your SV-2 on the flight deck during preflight	JUL	IBC
How Could We Have Missed That? —Tomcat crew missed a big gash on a slat	SEP	21

Search and Rescue (SAR)

Angel in the Storm —one crew's SAR story in the Gulf	FEB	24
Another Boring Day in the Gulf —anything but as an H-2 crew rescues merchant seamen after an Iranian attack	JUL	2

Training

Training: It's Not Just for Nuggets —regardless of rank or experience, we will always need training	APR-MAY	21
--	---------	----

Weather

Huey Versus the Volcano —VXE-6 crew copes with antarctic winds	FEB	26
I Can't Be Stalled! —this Hummer's rotodome ices up	SEP	10
I Might Actually Lose This One! —an XC becomes more exciting for this TA-4J crew	OCT	22
Larry, Moe and Curly Go to the Air Show —how much more warning did these aviators need...	OCT	24
The Ice Fog Cometh —Prowler crew has ice in the engine	NOV	14
Boomers and a Bad Radar —radar was more of a detriment than a help	NOV	22

Vultures' Row

This list includes Flight, Flight Related and Ground Class A Mishaps during FY-94. Classifications and descriptions are subject to change.

DATE	PLATFORM	COMMAND	DAY; NIGHT	FATAL	FLIGHT REGIME; LOCATION
7 Oct	UH-1N	HMM-163	N	1	Takeoff; at sea
14 Oct	UH-1N	HMM-268	N	0	Towing, aircraft fell overboard (AGM); at sea
15 Oct	AV-8B	VMA-231	D	0	Birdstrike during low-level; Raleigh, NC